BARK OF AVON
WON THIRD RACE

Russellton Took the Second and Spec the First Event at New Orleans Track To-Day.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Spec 1, Royal Deceiver 2, Safeguard 3.

SECOND RACE—Russellton 1, Peat 2, Caldwell 3.

THIRD RACE—Bark of Avon 1, Belvino 2, Lady Alberta 3.

FOURTH RACE—Rankin 1, Miss Stanley 2, Flintlock 3.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—Overnight calculations as to today's racing programme were badly upset, for the track was deep and sticky, and many horses that would have had chances in soft going were withdrawn.

All the six named starters in the handicap, however, went to the post, and the feature event of the card proved both good speculation and a good contest.

The scratches were Aratoma, Ino-fence, Buccleuch, John A. Clarke, Maister, Mary Moore, Shut Up, Alfred C. and Chickadee. Jack McKenna, the well-known Eastern handicapper, and Peter Wimmer, trainer for Capt. S. S. Brown, arrived this morning.

FIRST RACE.

Six furlongs; purse $400; for maiden three-year-olds and geldings.

Starters, whts. jocks. St. Hlt. Fin. Btting. Spec, 112, Winkfield, 7, 2, 1, 12.5, 4-5; Royal Deceiver, 110, M. 3, 1, 2, 8, 3; Safeguard, 107, Redfern, 1, 3, 2, 12, 4; Kivana, 107, M. Johnson, 6, 7, 4, 4, 15; Tim King, 107, Fuller, 8, 4, 2, 5, 6; Campbell, 115, Lindsay, 9, 6, 2, 2, 7-10; Shaggy, 110, Ouis, 2, 5, 7, 15, 6; Martin Head, 107.

Donagan, 5, 9, 8, 20, 8; S. Star, 107, 2, 3, 1, 10, 5; Start good. Won cleverly. Time 1:20 1-5.

The Griffin combination were very confident that Safeguard would win this race. They secured Redfern to ride and sent a big commission to Hot Springs to be placed on the colt. Safeguard was overrated. He was well ridden and had no excuse. Redfern got him away well in motion and picked his going. He had speed for a half and then stopped, leaving Spec to come on and win cleverly by a length from Royal Deceiver.

SECOND RACE.

One mile; purse $400; for four-year-olds and upward, selling.

Starters, whts. jocks. St. Hlt. Fin. Btting. Russellton, 121, Fuller, 4, 1, 1, 2, 4-5; Peat, 138, Ouis, 6, 3, 2, 19, 4; Bonanza Caldwell, 121, 3, 2, 1, 12, 4; Winkfield, 8, 4, 2, 1, 8, 3; Grey, 120, Redfern, 3, 2, 1, 12, 4; Dr. Fannie, 134, 1, 6, 5, 20, 8; Tim Spry, 142, R. Murr, 2, 7, 6, 9, 4; The Black Scot, 136.

Buchanan, 5, 5, 7, 2, 5, 10; Peter Duryan, 138, McJannet, 2, 3, 1, 10, 5; Judge Marco, Center, 12, 3, 1, 10, 5; Thistle, Powell, 138, 10, 10, 10, 20, 8; Lost Money, 107, 10, 10, 10, 20, 8.

Buchanan gave an exhibition of Wild West riding in this race. He had the mount of the Black Scot and before he had gone a quarter of the mile slipped under the horse's belly. Buchanan had to be helped to get to the horse, and he had to be helped to get to his neck. The winner turned up in Russellton, which won easily from Peat after making all his own pace.

THE FIDELIA CLUB HAS ENTERED BIG BOWLING TOURNEY.

JOHN KOSTER

DR. S. TIMM

This Five Has Already Won the American National Tournament.

One team with more than a look in for first money in The Evening World's big free bowling tournament is the Fidelia. This five has just won the American National Tournament and is one of the strongest five-men teams in the country to-day.

Amann is the captain, and the other four are John Koster, Dr. S. Timm, William Rothemel and Pete Schultz. They have already filed their application with the committee, and the teams that beat them out will have to crack-jacks.

Every man on the team expects to break his record, and in all probability the five-men high-team score will go glimmering when they get down to work in the finals.

CAPT. AMANN

MANY WRESTLING BOUTS SCHEDULED

The Making of Matches Indicates a Revival of Interest in the Sport.

New Yorkers, it seems, must have something strenuous in the line of sport to look at, and in the absence of the fist game nearly everybody is taking a great interest in wrestling. That is judged by the making of many matches of late to be held in New York and its vicinity in the near future.

The match which is attracting the greatest amount of attention is the proposed bout between Tom Jenkins and John Piening, which is to be decided at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 31. But there are other contests to be held before that.

George Bothner is probably the most active of all mat artists. He will begin a series of about half a dozen matches he has arranged to-morrow night, when he will go to Paterson, N. J., and wrestle Emil Silva, the champion of New Jersey, at the Blue Theatre. The bout as arranged will be at catch-as-catch-can and if Silva fails to throw the little New Yorker in half an hour it is to be immediately changed to Graeco-Roman style, which is Silva's long suit. If it is possible Jack Munroe will go to Paterson to see the bout.

Then, on Jan. 27, Tom Jenkins, who will come to this city in a week, will begin final preparations for a handicap match against Charles Leonhardt, of Newark. Jenkins has agreed to throw Leonhardt three times in an hour. Two nights later Bothner will again be seen in a match, and against him will be pitted Gus Faust, the heavy-weight wrestler who has won many matches from big and well-known wrestlers.

Faust agrees to throw Bothner four times in an hour, and every wrestler, man on the east side will be ready to back him. The scene of the bout will be the New Polo A. A. on One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Park avenue.

ALL-AMERICANS BOWLED TO DEFEAT

Starr's Boys Outrolled Cracks in Series of Five Games on New York Alleys.

The winning streak of the bowlers who make up the All-American team has been broken. The knights of the Pins, of New York, captained by Charles Starr, did the trick. Fully 400 persons saw the event on Starr's alleys.

The excitement in the first game was intense, as it was nip and tuck between the trios, the All-Americans winning by one pin, 57 to 56. Starr's players practically won the match in the second contest, outplaying their opponents by a score of 69 to 57. The local bowlers won the third game by twenty-six pins, lost the fourth by twenty-eight pins and won the fifth by two pins. Total pins decided the match, the New York trio tallying 3,063 against 2,933 for the All-Americans.

As Vorpheis was formerly an employee at Starr's, the alleys were not strange to him. He rolled over 200 in each game—221, 247, 226, 206 and 231. Starr led the New Yorkers with an average of 269 1-5. McAdams rolled in only three games and was replaced by Bauer, and Cahoon gave way to Sherwood in the last game, the latter tallying 241.

Vorpheis issued a challenge for another series for his trio, declaring that neither Peterson nor Wolf had had enough practice to become accustomed to the alleys. Starr consented to another match on condition that he could select any bowlers he desired, and he named himself, Sherwood and Beam.

Fourth Race—Selling, seven furlongs. Starter Jim, 112, Frank Rice, 107; Duddy Bender, 112, Computation, 107; Taurus, 112, Knap, 107; Welcome Light, 112, Safeguard, 107; Taurus, 112, Knap, 107; Taurus, 112, Knap, 107.
